

The story/caption

The departmental welfare team condoles with a bereaved member of support staff who lost her father.

The luncheon was held at San Valencia Hotel where members made personal financial contribution and shared words of encouragement with the member of staff.